

Dear Parent / Carer,

The children's return to school is an ever changing feast and, following the DFM's announcement on Tuesday, we have put contingency plans in place for four scenarios:

- 100% school return - no social distancing measures
- 1 metre social distancing - blended learning
- 2 metre social distancing - blended learning
- Continued online delivery

You will receive a letter next week outlining what this will look like for your child should we have to continue with blended learning either at 1 metre or 2 metre social distancing.

Learning at home

Next week children should register as usual but there will be no daily task on the class streams. Parents and children should refer to the activity grid for tasks to do on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. On Monday there is a special surprise for the children on their streams so please encourage them to check in on that day. On Thursday we will be posting our Primary 7 Leavers' Virtual Assembly. We also plan to have an evening ceremony for our Primary 7 pupils next session when this is allowed.

Google group social call

Next week we will have our final Google Meets of the session.

Primary 1 entrants' meeting

Thank you to all the parents who joined us for this Google Meet on Tuesday. In normal circumstances, we are able to share physical copies of the school lunch menu. As promised, here is the link to the present menu which is displayed on the Highland Council website. It should give you an idea what the usual choices look like.

We plan to have a further meeting with the parents next session in school as soon as this is allowed.

Primary 7 residential trip September 2020

Unfortunately, this trip will not be going ahead. Parents should receive a refund from the school next week for any money they have paid towards the trip, including their deposit. We presently aren't in a position to make a decision about a trip later in the session.

Next session's dates

The information we currently have is that staff will return to school on Tuesday, 11th August with pupils returning from Wednesday, 12th August. Practical details, e.g. lining up, lunches, transport to follow.
